

International conference
Bucharest, 6 June 2014

EdProf 2014

Economic education: where to?

Teacher`s Training Department from Bucharest University of Economic Studies invites you to attend EdProf 2014.

The central theme of EdProf 2014 is promoting ideas that can lead to new approaches of economic education. The conference is particularly focused, but not limited, on the following topics:

- Economics and Education;
- Current challenges in education;
- Educational entrepreneurship;
- Education and social economy;
- Innovation in economic education;

The conference aims to promote original articles of basic research results, case studies and best practices .

Conference Fee: 100 lei (that includes conference map, cd with the full papers, published at Editura ASE, rated A 2 with ISSN and coffee break). Accommodation and transport are supported by participants. Participation for students is free.

Participation conditions:

One participant can have only 2 papers. One paper can have maximum 3 authors. Authors shall register only on-line. We encourage the participation of university and preuniversity teachers, students and others persons interested in educational issues. The language of the conference is English. We are making steps in indexing the current conference in social and education sciences data base.

Deadlines:

10th of March – 11th of April 2014: on-line registration (creating a user account and abstract upload)

18th of April - notification of abstract acceptance

19th of April - 16th may 2014: full paper upload

23rd of May - 30th of May: tax payment (the tax payment receipt is sent to the conference on-line address conferinta@dppd.ase.ro).

26th may 2013: announcing the conference agenda

Information about on-line register, tax payment and paper format is available at <http://edprof.ase.ro>

Best regards,
EdProf Committee